Washington D.C. --- Fourth District Congressman Nick Rahall announced today that all four of his Congressional Offices are now fully operational and serving the people of the 4th District.

The Raleigh County Democrat has three District Offices, which are located in Beckley, Bluefield and Huntington. Rahall's Washington D.C. office is at, 511 Cannon House Office Building, Washington D.C., 20515. The telephone number is 202-225-3452.

Rahall's Beckley office is located in the Bair Building on Main Street. The phone number is 252-5000. Two Beckley residents, Betsy Gonzalez and Zita Asbury will be on duty in the office.

The District Office in Bluefield, staffed by Lucy Thornhill and Chris West, is located at 1005 Federal Building. The telephone is 325-6222.

The Huntington office is at 217 Post Office Building, and has a very unique telephone number that is, 522-NICK (6425). The office is operated by Marge Altizer.

Dennis Blair of Beckley, will serve as Congressman Rahall's At-Large Field Representative. Mr. Blair will work out of the Beckley office.

Rahall's Washington office is staffed by five Fourth District residents. The Congressman's administrative assistant, Paula Smith is from Huntington; Tim Hensley, assistant press aide is also from Huntington; Lawson Brooks is from Bluefield; Jane Bone is from Beckley; and Elaine Booth is from Kenova.

Congressman Rahall expects to open an office soon in Logan. The District Office in Logan, will be the first Congressional office located in that part of the Fourth District.
