Logan, West Virginia --- Fourth District Congressman Nick J. Rahall, (D-WV), will be in Logan County on January 16.

Congressman Rahall will be at the Crooked Creek School for Exceptional Children in Switzer at 10am. The Congressman will present a United States flag to the school. The flag is a special version which has been flown on the Capitol Building in Washington D.C.

At 11am, Congressman Rahall will take part in the Grand Opening ceremonies at the Workman's IGA in Chapmanville.

"I look forward to spending the entire day in Logan County," said Rahall, "because I believe it is very important to stay in close contact with the people who elected me, so I can get their views on the issues that face them."

Congressman Rahall has had a very busy schedule of travel throughout the Fourth Congressional District over the past two weeks.
