RAHALL ANNOUNCES ARTS COMPETITION WINNER

Washington D.C. --- West Virginia's Fourth District Congressman Nick J. Rahall announced the official opening of a national exhibition featuring the winning entry from the 4th District Art Competition.

The winning entry, "Butterfly Spirit", by Stephanie Midkiff of Lashmeet, in Mercer County, will join more than 200 other works of art by high school students chosen from art competitions conducted by Members of the U.S. House of Representatives throughout the country.

The national exhibition is part of "An Artistic Discovery", the annual Congressional Art Competition sponsored by the Congressional Arts Caucus and conducted by the Members in their own Districts.

Last week, Larry Hagman--J.R. Ewing of "Dallas", offered his support to the exhibition. Congressman Rahall and Hagman are pictured in the attached photo.
