W. VA. TO RECEIVE FEDERAL $$$

Washington D.C. --- West Virginia's Fourth District
Congressman Nick J. Rahall, announced today that the State of West Virginia will receive $766,909 from the U.S. Department of the Interior.

"This payment," Rahall pointed out, "is to partially compensate local governments for revenues lost because of the presence of certain tax-exempt Federal lands within their boundaries."

The individual county breakdown for Interior funds is:

Cabell County	$571.00
Mingo County	$1,493.00
Raleigh County	$458.00
Wayne County	$25,901.00
Wyoming County	$10,278.00

"The individual counties can use these monies as they see fit," Congressman Rahall said.

Payments will be made by the end of the fiscal year, Sept. 30.
