RAHALL NAMES LOGAN GIRL TO MOUNTAIN STATE FOREST FESTIVAL COURT

Washington, D.C. -- Fourth District Rep. Nick Rahall (D-WV) has named Monica Lucas of Logan to serve as a Princess to the Royal Court of Her Highness, Queen Sylvia L, during the Mountain State Forest Festival which will be held in Elkins, September 28 through October 5, 1986.

"I am very proud to have Monica Lucas representing the people of the Fourth District during the Festival," Rep. Rahall said. "She is a very intelligent, personable, beautiful young lady and all of us in southern West Virginia can take pride that she is going to be showing the people of the rest of the state the best we have to offer."

Monica is the daughter of Dean Lucas and Patricia Lucas of Logan and is a student at Southern West Virginia Community College.
