HUNTINGTON RECEIVES $1.7 MILLION IN FEDERAL FUNDS, RAHALL SAYS

Washington, D.C. -- U.S. Rep. Nick Rahall (D-WV) announced today that the city of Huntington will receive $1,705,000 in their yearly entitlement in the Community Development Block Grant program from the Housing and Urban Development Department.

"The money will be used for the Economic Development Revolving Loan Program, housing rehabilitation, clearance activities, fire protection equipment, street reconstruction, removal of architectural barriers, and assorted public services," Rahall explained. "These funds will help to improve the quality of life in the city of Huntington, and it is good to see that the Community Development Block Grant program, long a target for the budget knife, is still serving the people of our great state."

The monies will be credited to the city immediately.
