RAHALL ANNOUNCES H.U.D. GRANT TO HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION

Washington, D.C. -- U.S. Rep. Nick Rahall (D-WV) announced today that the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development has awarded a grant to the Beckley Human Rights Commission under the Fair Housing Assistance Program.

"I am very pleased that H.U.D. has awarded this grant of $13,200 to the Beckley Human Rights Commission," Rep. Rahall said. "These funds will support the agency's housing discrimination complaint processing efforts and fund expenses associated with providing training for agency personnel in fair housing enforcement."

"It is a slap in the face to all Americans when someone is denied housing because of race, gender, religious beliefs or ethnic origin," Rahall pointed out. "These funds will help to accelerate the process through which complaints can be filed and justice can be handed down."
