RAHALL SAYS WEST VIRGINIA TO GET FUNDS TO AID HOMELESS

WASHINGTON - U.S. Rep. Nick Rahall (D-W.Va.) said today that several jurisdictions in the State of West Virginia have been awarded funds to supplement and extend ongoing efforts to provide shelter, food and supportive services to the homeless.

The entities have been awarded money by the Federal Emergency Management Agency under the Supplemental Appropriations Act of 1987.

"It is essential that we aid those who are less fortunate," Rahall said. "Many people think that the homeless are only in New York, Los Angeles and other large urban centers. We all know that is not true. Huntington, Charleston, Wheeling and many other West Virginia cities are faced with this problem which I hope will be aided as a result of this action."

The following jurisdictions received funding:
