RAHALL BULLETIN BOARD

The office computer of U.S. Rep. Nick Rahall will be on display at the Defense Fair in Princeton sponsored by the El-Tech corporation and Senator Jay Rockefeller. The fair is being held at 9:00 am on Monday, October 19, at the El-Tech plant in Princeton.

"My office computer has the capability to search out available government defense contracts open for bidding, which will give West Virginia firms a quicker start on preparing competitive bids," Rahall explained. "This computer is available for interested parties to work with members of my staff at my offices in Bluefield, Beckley, Logan and Huntington. Firms can make an appointment to see for themselves what contracts are available. My staff will be demonstrating this capability at the Defense Fair."

"I commend Senator Rockefeller for his efforts in this regard, and will continue to work closely with him, Senator Byrd and the rest of the delegation to improve the flow of defense dollars to West Virginia," he added.
