RAHALL ANNOUNCES $367,000 FROM EPA TO AID WEST VIRGINIA

WASHINGTON, DC -- U.S. Rep. Nick Rahall (D-WV) announced today that the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency awarded two grants, totalling $367,258, to the West Virginia Division of Environmental Protection.

$103,122 was designated for the Underground Storage Tanks Program, and will be used to regulate underground tank storage through out West Virginia. $133,011 was awarded to the Leaking Underground Storage Tank Program. This funding will be used to support State corrective action and enforcement efforts that address petroleum leaks from underground storage tanks. "We must continue to work to minimize these leaks and their harmful effects," said Rahall.
