HUD AWARDS $19,836 FOR HOUSING COUNSELING

Washington, D.C.-- U.S. Rep. Nick Rahall (D-WV) announced today that the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development has awarded Consumer Credit Counseling Service, Inc. of Huntington $19,836 to provide housing counseling.

These awards are given to non profit organizations in order for them to provide counseling services. The services range from giving information on how to consolidate debt to renting or buying a house.

"This is an excellent program because it provides counseling at no charge to those who need it," explained Rahall.
