HUNTINGTON TO RECEIVE DISABLED COMPLEX

WASHINGTON, D.C. -- U.S. Rep. Nick Rahall (D-W.Va.) announced today that the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development has awarded $1,518,400 in order to construct housing for the disabled. The funding was provided under Section 811 Supportive Housing for Persons with Disabilities Program.

"These units will allow those individual with disabilities to live more independent lives," said Rahall.

The Independent Living Complex, when completed, will consist of 25 separate units. The units will be constructed with special features to aid the inhabitants.
