WEST VIRGINIA NURSES ENDORSE RAHALL

WASHINGTON, D.C. -- The political action arm of the American Nurses' Association has offered its endorsement of U.S. Rep. Nick Rahall (D-WV) in the upcoming fall election for congressman from the Fourth District.

Nancy Chandler, Chairperson for ANA-PAC, commended Rahall on his significant record in support of nursing and on health care issues:

"We applaud your continuing commitment for access to quality health care for all Americans. The American Nurses' Association appreciates the leadership you have shown on nursing's critical role as major providers of health services. Your re-election will benefit all of us who are proud to care and who believe in a just and equitable society. The nurses in West Virginia join us in endorsing your candidacy."

"I am extremely pleased with this endorsement," said Rahall, "because it represents the feelings of a group of people I have a tremendous amount of respect for: the nurses of America. We in West Virginia appreciate just how important these men and women are and how much their service is needed. I will continue to try and do the things that see to it that their needs are met."

Dear Representative Rahall:

It is with real pleasure that ANA-PAC, the political action arm of the American Nurses' Association, offers its endorsement to you for the coming election. The nurses in West Virginia join us in endorsing your candidacy.

The American Nurses' Association recognizes your significant record in support of nursing and health care issues. We applaud your continuing commitment for access to quality health care for all Americans. The American Nurses' Association appreciates the leadership you have shown on nursing's critical role as major providers of health services. Your re-election will benefit all of us who are proud to care and who believe in a just and equitable society.

Nurses regard the future to hold particular promise for addressing the needs of our clients and patients. We look forward to working with you on issues of mutual concern in the days ahead. Please call our office if ANA can be helpful with your re-election efforts or for any information you may need.

Best wishes for a successful election.

Sincerely,

Nancy Chandler
