SOUTHWESTERN COMMUNITY ACTION COUNCIL RECEIVES HHS FUNDING

WASHINGTON, D.C. -- U.S. Rep. Nick J. Rahall (D-WV) today announced that the Southwestern Community Action Council in Huntington has been awarded $178,078 from the Department of Health and Human Services.

The grant was for the Transitional Living Program, a three year project which will be funded through September 29, 1993. This grant covers the first 15-month period.

"I am glad that this money could be provided to the Southwestern Community Action council so that they can further build on the important work that they do for Wayne and Cabell counties," said Rahall.
