FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE -----

ATHENS, W.Va., October 31, 1990 -----

NICK RAHALL SCHOLARSHIP PRESENTED AT CONCORD COLLEGE

Concord College student Dale Edwards II (left) is congratulated as the College's first Nick J. Rahall II Scholarship Award winner by Rep. Rahall (right) on Oct. 29 in Athens. The scholarship program was begun this summer to honor Rahall by the National Association of Arab Americans (NAAA) Foundation of Washington, D.C.

The award consists of $500 a year for four years, as long as the recipient maintains an adequate academic average. Such scholarships are being established at colleges and universities in the Fourth Congressional District, with funds administered by the NAAA Foundation.

Edwards is a freshman from Daniels majoring in Commercial Art/Advertising at Concord. He is a 1990 graduate of Shady Spring High School and is the son of Randy and Vicky Edwards of Daniels.
