RAHALL TO APPEAR ON WASHINGTON REPORT

BECKLEY, W.V. -- West Virginia Public Television's "Washington Report", an annual series which focuses on the legislative agendas of West Virginia's congressional delegation, will air its segment featuring U.S. Rep. Nick Rahall (D-WV) on WSWP-TV on January 24th at 10:00 p.m.

Rep. Rahall will discuss his upcoming role on the Public Works and Transportation Committee and the fight to fund roads in West Virginia. Rahall will also touch on his efforts to revamp the entire Black Lung benefits system, and his attempts to bring more surplus Defense Department equipment to West Virginia.

The segment will also air on Huntington's WPBY-TV on February 3rd at 7:30 p.m.
