

U.S. Congressman
Nick Rahall
WORKING FOR WEST VIRGINIANS

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FEBRUARY 6, 1991

CONTACT: STEVE SPINA

PHONE: (202) 225-3452

LEADERS OF TOMORROW, NOMINATED TODAY

WASHINGTON, D.C. -- U.S. Rep. Nick J. Rahall, (D-WV) has offered his nominations to the United States Service Academies for 1991. The following is a list of the applicants and their respective hometowns:

ARMY

Larry Blackburn	Matewan
Todd Blackwell	Huntington
Wendy S. Brown	Huntington
Eric Lewis	Huntington
Clay Sampson	Bluefield
Jeffrey Williams	Huntington
Ms. Robie Young	Culloden
Craig Whittinghill	Athens
Alvin Morton	Beckley
Sam Litteral	Chapmanville

NAVY

Charles Basham	Huntington
Joshua Campbell	Princeton
Jennifer Goddard	Cool Ridge
Shad Herrenkohl	Barboursville
Eric Lewis	Huntington
Craig Whittinghill	Athens
Daryl Banks	Cora
Sam Litteral	Chapmanville
Alvin Morton	Beckley

AIR FORCE

Amy Smith	Huntington
David Williams	Davin
Craig Whittinghill	Athens
Daryl Banks	Cora
Sam Litteral	Chapmanville
Alvin Morton	Beckley

Each academy has only a limited number of availabilities yearly. After being nominated by their Congressman, each applicant has to undergo a scrupulous screening process by the respective academy.

"In this time of crises, it is invigorating to realize the amount of patriotism West Virginians have," stated Rahall. "I believe that each of these nominees are very dedicated individuals, who are willing to serve their country and preserve its Constitution," heralded Rahall.

--30--