HUNTINGTON MUSEUM WILL RECEIVE NEA FUNDS

WASHINGTON, D.C. -- U.S. Rep. Nick Rahall (D-WV) today announced that the Huntington Museum of Art has secured an $11,000 grant from the National Endowment for the Arts.

The money will be used by the museum to support conservation treatment of paintings in the museum's 19th-century European art collection.

"I am happy that the NEA has seen its way to providing the Huntington Museum with this funding," said Rahall. "It is important that we in government support those who dedicate themselves to the recognition and protection of the creative genius of the human mind."
