MARSHALL FINDS FUNDS FOR MIDWIFE PROGRAM

WASHINGTON, D.C. -- U.S. Rep. Nick Rahall (D-WV) today announced that Marshall University has secured a grant from the Department of Health and Human Services (HHS). The grant totals $238,867 and will be used for Marshall's Nurse Practitioner and Nurse-Midwifery Program.

Rahall said that HHS plans to fund the program through July of 1994 with two more grants to be distributed over that time.

"Marshall University has shown tremendous dedication in its efforts to train and teach our State's medical profession," said Rahall. "I know they will continue, and I hope these funds will help."
