Dear Mr. Stiles:

Thank you very much for your letter of recent date. I appreciate your writing me relative to the present "energy crisis."

It is certainly good to have the benefit of your views concerning gasoline rationing. You may be assured I will continue my efforts toward the passage of fair and equitable legislation for all.

As you no doubt know, the House and Senate did take action on the Energy Emergency Act during the last days of the First Session. In all probability, it will be one of the first items to be considered when the Second Session of the 93rd Congress convenes.

Again, thanking you for writing and with kind regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

HARLEY O. STAGGERS

Sir:

I am writing you in regards to the fuel shortage. I am a construction laborer from Local no 379. And was wondering about the shortage and rationing of gasoline. As some times we have to drive around 140 miles a day. And what are you doing in regards to the situation? And if it is rationed who'll get their share? The money men or the working men? I see that there's lots of gas and fuel oil hoarding already. I would like an answer from these few questions.
