Brigadier General T. S. Hammond,
Chicago Ordnance District,
38 South Dearborn Street,
Chicago, Illinois.

Dear General Hammond:

It was a great pleasure to meet you and your staff last week. Our discussion proved one of the most instructive I have had as a member of the Truman Committee. The men under your command appear to have an excellent grasp of their jobs.

Our Committee will welcome any further information and suggestions that you may have to supplement the valuable contribution you have already made.

Cordially,

HARLEY M. KILGORE

Brigadier General Edgar Clewell,
Signal Corps Depot,
1903 West Pershing Road,
Chicago, Illinois.

Dear General Clewell:

It was a great pleasure to meet you last week. My discussion with you and my inspection of the installation under your command were not only important sources of information, but also of gratification on the excellence of the job being done.

Our Committee will welcome any further information or suggestions which you may have to supplement the valuable contribution you have already made.

You will be interested in knowing that we also had an excellent meeting with General Hammond and his staff at which Major Gilmore contributed a great deal.

With very best wishes,

Cordially,

HARLEY M. KILGORE
