Maj. General Harold L. George, U.S. Army
Commanding General, Air Transport Command
Room 1844, Army Air Forces Annex No. 1
Gravelly Point, Virginia

My dear General George:

I am most pleased to be directed by Hon. Harley M. Kilgore, USS, Chairman, and Hon. Homer Ferguson, USS, member of the subcommittee of this Committee, to convey to you the appreciation of all concerned for the courtesies extended and facilities provided by your Command in the recent mission to Miami Beach and Key West, Florida, and return, from January 4, 1944, to January 10, 1944.

The Ground Forces personnel at Washington, Miami and Key West were most courteous and functioned with utmost efficiency. Our pilot, Major John W. Graham, and the detail under his command are especially commended to you as a group. All concerned were most favorably impressed by the ability, efficiency and courtesy of Major Graham and could wish that he might be available for all future trips.

With kindest appreciation, I am,

Yours respectfully,

FRANK E. LOWE
Brig. General, U.S. Army
Executive
