Spencer, West Virginia

My dear Mr. Woodyard:

My delay in responding to your letter of the twenty-third day of March has been due to the fact that I have been on an extended trip on the west coast for the Truman Committee.

I now hasten to assure you that the matters to which you invite my attention will be given my most careful consideration.

Thanking you for your expression of views on this important issue, I am, with kindest regard,

Most sincerely yours,
