

June 17, 1918.

Hon. Howard Sutherland
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Sutherland,

I trust that you will not only support the Equal Suffrage Amendment, now before the Senate for consideration, but will use your utmost influence to secure its passage.
Very truly yours,
Mrs. E. G. Rohrbough

Suffrage

June 18, 1918.

Mrs. E. H. Rohrbough, Glenville, W. Va.

My dear Mrs. Rohrbough:

I have your favor of the 17th instant regarding the Suffrage Amendment, and you may be quite sure that this matter will have the most careful consideration of which I am capable.

With kindest personal regards, I am,

Very truly yours,
