

June 24, 1918.

Mrs. Jas. W. Wadsworth,
Washington, D.C.

My dear Mrs Wadsworth:

I have your letter of the 22nd instant in regard to the Susan B. Anthony Amendment which will be brought up in the Senate next Thursday, June 27, to be voted upon, and I assure you that I am giving the matter my most serious consideration, and am very glad to have your views on the subject.

Thanking you for your letter and with kindest personal regards, I am,

Very truly yours,
